

APPLICATION PROCESS FOR THE CLASS OF 2000

Step 1:

Request Information and Application

Laura Pitts, Program Director
Phone: (650) 324-3126
Email: lpitts@pacc.batnet.com

Step 2:

Attend an Informational Meeting

Step 3:

Send application to Leadership Midpeninsula
Deadline: May 21, 1999

Step 4:

Attend a selection interview
June 14-18, 1999

Step 5:

All applicants are notified of the results of their application by July 5, 1999

Tuition

Individuals and businesses with less than 750 employees: $1250
Businesses with more than 750 employees: $1500

Scholarships

Full and partial scholarships are available.

Eligibility

Candidacy is open to everyone, regardless of race, creed, gender, sexual preference, philosophy, physical limitations, or employment status.

For Curriculum see over

LEADERSHIP
MIDPENINSULA
PROGRAM –
CLASS OF 2000

Training:

Participants in the Leadership Midpeninsula Class of 2000 will receive training in 3 areas:

- leadership skills
- knowledge of community issues, systems, and challenges
- knowledge of community leaders/networking

Program Dates

Our Program Dates for the 1999-2000 class year are:

September 17: Leading With Self-Knowledge
September 25: Team Training for Participants and Advisors (1/2 day)
October 22-23: The Leadership Challenge (2 days)
November 12: Systems Thinking and Leading Change
November 20: Exploring Issues of Diversity (1/2 day)
December 10: Power and Public Policy
January 14: Prosperity and Economic Vitality
February 11: Sustainable Communities and Social Equity
March 10: Education
April 14: Health & Human Services
May 12: Arts and Media
June 9: Planning for Lifelong Leadership in Our Communities

Celebrations

Opening Reception: September 8, 1999
Graduation: June 9, 2000